Dear Mr. Ventura,

I'm writing to thank you for your donation of the basket to the St. Baldrick's Foundation. Gifts of goods and services are an important part of our success in raising funds for life-saving research to help find cures for children with cancer. We appreciate your contribution!

Over 10,000 brave "shavees" collected pledges and had their heads shaved this year at 273 St. Baldrick's events across the U.S. and beyond, raising money for our cause. Each bald head represents all of us who stand in solidarity with children fighting cancer, uniquely showing these children and their families how much we care about them.

This year tens of thousands of caring St. Baldrick's donors like you combined forces to raise more than $8 million! Since the event began on St. Patrick's Day of 2000, over $20 million has been raised, making our community of shavees and supporters a major force for progress in the world of childhood cancer research.

To see the St. Baldrick's Foundation's continued growth, information about how your donations are being used, and more news as it happens, please stop in now and then at www.StBaldricks.org.

On behalf of children fighting cancer, their families, the volunteers who worked on your St. Baldrick's event, and the researchers who are working hard to find new cures, we send you our heartfelt thanks.

Until We Conquer Kids' Cancer,

Kathleen Ruddy
Executive Director
